EASTERN CARIBBEAN SUPREME COURT
CIVIL PROCEDURE RULES
PRACTICE GUIDE
No. 1 of 2020

Migration of Court of Appeal, Civil, and Commercial Matters manually filed prior to the implementation of the Electronic Litigation Portal

This Practice Guide is made pursuant to Rule 4.5(1) of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court Civil Procedure Rules 2000, and is applicable to all the Member States and Territories in the jurisdiction of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court where the E-Litigation Portal has been implemented.

1.0 Introduction

- 1.1 This Practice Guide is intended to assist legal practitioners and Litigants to transfer their filings in a claim from the manual hard copy file to an electronic case file on the E-Litigation Portal ("E-Portal") and for facilitating this process.
- 1.2 Parties are encouraged to migrate existing paper files onto the E-Portal in those Member States and Territories where it is available. When so migrated, the E-Portal will automatically assign to the claim a new claim number for continuing with proceedings through use on the E-Portal.

2.0 Procedure

- 2.1 To give effect to the migration of a file, the legal practitioner wishing to effect the migration must apply for a migration order by filing an Application on Notice on the E-Portal requesting that the matter be placed on the E-Portal and issued a new claim number.

- 2.2 This application must be made in Form 1 in the schedule to this Practice Guide, to the Chief Registrar, for Court of Appeal matters or the Registrar of the High Court for High Court matters. The application and any subsequent documents submitted for filing on the E-Portal must reference both claim numbers, i.e. the new claim number assigned by the E- Portal and the old claim number which identified the claim in the manual filing.
- 2.3 After the case is created electronically on the E- Portal, where the legal practitioner or party who made the filing is not the claimant / appellant or their legal practitioner as the case may be –
 - 2.3.1 (i) the filing party must note and record the authorization codes for all the parties and withdraw the representation, as the E- Portal will record the filing party as the Claimant / Appellant attorney.
 - 2.3.2 (ii) Having withdrawn representation for the Claimant / Appellant, the filing party must then perform the “Represent Case” function using the Authorization Code for their client.
- 2.4 The legal practitioner filing the initial Application specified in Section 2.2 must then send the relevant authorization code to each of the other parties in the matter so that each legal practitioner can perform the “Represent Case” function in order to be properly recorded in the case in respect of the client which he/she represents.
- 2.5 Pro se litigants must be served manually as stipulated in the ECSC E-Litigation Filing and Service Procedure Rules.
- 2.6 Where an application for migration is consented to by the parties or is made jointly by the parties, the application will be dealt with on the papers by the Chief Registrar or Registrar of the High Court, as the case may be. Where an application is opposed, the hearing of the application may be placed before a judge or master of the court.
- 2.7 If the application is granted, an order shall be made as far as practicable in the terms of Form 2 in the schedule to this Practice Guide. The legal practitioners will be ordered to agree a bundle of all previous manually filed documents and upload this bundle onto the E-Portal as an "Additional Volume" (thereby attracting no further filing fees for the documents already filed). Thereafter each legal practitioner shall continue any new filings in respect of that claim or appeal on the E-Portal.

- 2.8 Where the migration order is not granted, any document submitted to the Registry of the Supreme Court for filing must be submitted via email in accordance with the Emergency Measures COVID-19 Practice Direction (Re-Issue), No. 3 of 2020 or any other applicable Practice Direction.
- 2.9 When migrated, all subsequent documents filed in the claim or appeal must state the new E-Portal number and also state the previous case number. E.g. XXXHCVAP2020/0018 formerly XXXHCVAP2018/0032.

3.0 Effective Date

This Practice Direction shall come into effect in a Member State or Territory on the 5th day of May, 2020.

Dated the 4th day of May, 2020.
