5. Remote Hearings

No. 44

- 5.1 The objective is to undertake as many hearings as possible remotely so as to minimise the risk of transmission of Covid-19. This section provides basic guidance as to the conduct of remote hearings.
- 5.2 The Chief Justice through a published Notice has directed that the location from which a Judge, Master, or Registrar conducts a remote hearing pursuant to this Practice Direction shall be declared a Court for the purpose of the conduct of Court proceedings.
- A hearing conducted in accordance with this Practice Direction must be treated as a hearing in accordance with the Rules of Court. Nothing in this Practice Direction derogates from the judicial officer's duty to determine all issues that arise in the case judicially and in accordance with normal principles.
- 5.4 All in-person appearances are discouraged. Hearings will be conducted on the date and in the manner specified by the judicial officer and will utilize digital technology including audio, web, video or teleconference where the judicial officer deems it appropriate.
- 5.5 The method by which all hearings, including remote hearings, are conducted is always a matter for the judicial officer(s), operating in accordance with applicable law, Rules and Practice Directions. In determining the method by which a hearing or trial should be conducted, a judicial officer must:
  - (a) have regard to the interest of public health and the ability to maintain appropriate physical distancing while in attendance in courtrooms; and
    - (b) give directions as to the venue from which a litigant or witness is to be present.
- 5.6 Where a judicial officer deems it fit for a hearing to be conducted in person, attendance should be limited to attorneys, parties, and necessary witnesses only.
- 5.7 It is good practice for the judicial officer and court office staff to consider as far ahead as possible how future hearings should best be undertaken.
- 5.8 Where a hearing proceeds remotely:
  - (a) the court may, if deemed necessary, fix a remote case management conference in advance of the fixed hearing date to allow for directions to be made in relation to the conduct of the hearing, the technology to be used, and/or any other relevant matters;
  - (b) Legal practitioners shall inform the Court of the location from which they intend to attend a hearing prior to the commencement of the hearing;
  - (c) the court, and the parties, will be required to log in or call in to the dedicated facility in good time for the stated start time of the remote hearing. Parties are to ensure that they are online in time for the prompt commencement of the hearing. If the parties are having any connectivity or other difficulties this should be promptly communicated to the court office;

- (d) it is the responsibility of a Legal Practitioner who is not physically present in the Member State or Territory at the time of the hearing to identify an appropriate video conferencing facility which they will utilize and to connect to the facility of the Court;
- (e) at the commencement of that hearing, a Legal Practitioner representing each party shall identify every person present with him or her;
- (f) no party or his/ her Legal Practitioner is entitled to be physically present before the Court unless the Court gives permission;
- (g) the hearing will be recorded by the court office in accordance with the measures put in place for the recording of court matters;
- (h) the parties and their legal representatives are not permitted to record the hearing; and
- (i) requests for copies of the audio recordings are to be done in accordance with this Practice Direction.
- The first hearing of a Fixed Date Claim Form shall not be treated as a hearing at which the evidence of any witness is to be given, unless the Court has given a direction to that effect.
- 5.10 Where a hearing is conducted remotely, details of the manner in which the public shall have access to the live stream/ of the hearing will be published on the court's website.

6. Bundles for Hearings

- 6.1 The parties must prepare an electronic bundle of documents and an electronic bundle of authorities for each remote hearing. Each electronic bundle should be indexed and paginated in accordance with the guidelines in Schedule 2 of this Practice Direction and should be provided to the court office and to all other parties via email or via the Electronic Litigation Portal should the matter be available there. The electronic bundles must be available well in advance of the hearing.
- 6.2 Electronic bundles should contain only documents and authorities that are essential to the remote hearing. Single large electronic files should be avoided as these can be slow to transmit and unwieldy to use.
- 6.3 Electronic bundles can be prepared in .pdf and must be filed in accordance with the measure put in place for filing by the court office.
- 6.4 Legal practitioners must ensure that the documents which form part of an electronic bundle are scanned in a quality which makes the contents clearly visible and legible. Legal Practitioners must also ensure that scanned documents are presented in the electronic bundle in an upward manner, whether in portrait or landscape orientation, so that the document can be easily read. The court should not have to rotate any page in a document in order to read it.
- 6.5 The party responsible for preparing the bundles for any hearing under the Rules shall, within the periods prescribed:
  - (a) deliver one (1) hard copy of the bundle to the Registrar of the High Court within seven days or as soon as the Court Office is open to receive documents whichever occurs later; and
  - (b) deliver a bookmarked electronic copy of that bundle by e-mail to every other party.
- 6.6 The Court reserves the right to request additional hard copies of any bundles from the party who has filed by e-mail.
- 6.7 The bundle should be clearly labelled as a hearing bundle and must bear the date of the hearing.
- 6.8 Bundles provided in hard copy must be a replica of the electronically filed bundles paginated in similar form accompanied by an Index cover describing the documents contained in the bundle and referencing the page number within the bundle of the document.

  - (b) the Court may accept such undertakings as appears to it appropriate:
    - (i) as to the production of the originals, or certified copies of the originals of the documents produced at that hearing;

SCHEDULE 2

Guidelines on Preparation of Electronic Hearing Bundles / Trial Bundles

The following instructions have been developed to ensure that Hearing Bundles / Trial Bundles are prepared in a standard format to facilitate quick access to the relevant information by judges of the High Court and the Court of Appeal during the conduct of the hearing or trial.

- 1. A suitably labelled cover page should be prepared and printed which provides the case number, country, and other general information associated with a filing being uploaded to the portal. This cover page is necessary to ensure that the stamp can be placed on the filing which is being submitted.
- 2. The documents to be placed in the bundle should all be printed and placed in the order in which they are to be submitted to the Court. A volume size should not exceed the 100 MB file size limit of the portal for uploading as a pdf document. Therefore, only in cases where the volume size exceeds the allowed size on the portal should additional volumes be filed.
- 3. Where the bundle is being submitted in multiple volumes, each volume should have a suitable worded cover page clearly indicating Volume 1, Volume 2, etc. in order to comply with Step 1.
- 4. The cover page together with the documents which are part of the volume should then be scanned and saved as a ".pdf". This should be repeated for each volume to be uploaded to the portal. At the end of this step there should be an individual ".pdf" file for each volume which is to be submitted and filed on to the portal.
- 5. A document index (or table of contents) must then be created prior to submission of the bundle on the portal. In order to create the index the legal practitioner should open the respective ".pdf" volume and identify the submissions with the ".pdf" page numbers as it appears within the ".pdf" document volume. Once this information is obtained please include it in the MS Word version of the index which is being prepared. For example, the Notice of Appeal which is in Volume 1 starts on page 4 so the index should state this. If the Transcript in Volume 1 starts on page 18 in the ".pdf" document, then this should be so stated in the index document.

- 6. Once the index is completed in MS Word where it clearly specifies the volume, name of the submission, and the page number where each submission starts in the ".pdf" volume, it should then be printed and scanned as a separate ".pdf" document. Please note that the index should be prepared chronologically starting with Volume 1, page 1 to 100 for a 100-page ".pdf" document volume. Then it would provide Volume 2, if a 2nd volume exists, commencing from page 1 to 300 for a 300-page document, and so on. Also, please note that the first page of a ".pdf" Hearing Bundle or Trial Bundle volume will always be the cover page which was referred to in Steps 1 and 3 above.
- 7. During the conduct of the trial, the judge/judges will then be able to open the index and the volume being referred to by counsel during the hearing directly from the portal. Once referred to the volume and page number on the index this will allow the judge/judges to quickly navigate to the correct document in the volume.
- 8. Legal practitioners should always refer to their index and the actual ".pdf" page numbers in the ".pdf" document during the course of their presentation to the Court. It would therefore be useful to have a laptop or other smart device with the ".pdf" file open so that the legal practitioner can direct the court to specific pages in the document to which they wish to refer.

Additional Guidance For Matters on the Portal

- 9. Once the index is accurately created and you have completed step 6 you are now ready to file the Hearing Bundle or Trial Bundle on the portal. There will be one ".pdf" file for the index and a separate individual ".pdf" file for each volume which is being submitted.
- 10. The first volume of the Hearing Bundle or Trial Bundle can be submitted as the first filing which will attract the full filing fee and the $2 Administration Fee. Each subsequent volume should be filed as "Additional Volume" so that only the $2 Administration Fee has to be paid.
- 11. The last document to be filed should be the index which should also be filed as an "Additional Volume" so that only the $2 Administration Fee is paid.
- 12. Where necessary legal practitioners may use the "pack and go" feature to download all the documents from the portal so that they can access it during the actual hearing or trial if there is no internet or slow connection for directly accessing the portal.
