The Medical Council further wishes to advise the general public of the Offence of practicing medicine without a valid licence and registration within the jurisdiction of Antigua and Barbuda as follows:

Section 29 of the Medical Practitioners Act creates offences for the contravention of Section 12 [Registration and Licencing] and sets out the penalties of practicing medicine without a valid licence and registration, to wit:-

(1) On summary conviction for practicing medicine without licence and registration, a fine of $10,000 or two years imprisonment or both;

Upon an indictment for practicing medicine without licence and registration, a fine of $25,000 or three years imprisonment or both.

(2) On summary conviction for practicing medicine after the expiration of licence and registration, a fine of $1,500 and $400 for every day of practice after the expiration of licence

Section 30 of the act sets out an Offence and the penalties for False Representation in the procurement or attempt to procure registration and or licence as a medical practitioner either for himself or another, on summary conviction a fine of $10,000 or to imprisonment of one year or both.

Section 31 sets out the penalty where no specific penalty has been promulgated as follows:-

A person who contravenes any provision of the Medical Practitioners Act, 2009, No. 3 of 2009, or the regulations for which no specific penalty is provided commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $10,000 or to imprisonment for two years, or both, or upon an indictment, to a fine of $25,000 or to imprisonment for three years or to both.
